Hello - lway81:

Firsts and foremost, "Thank You!" for your comments and encouragement, and, your overlooking of My inability to type well. Let Me also say, My apologies for the significant delay in responding to your comments. I only received your comments on: (02/10/2014) cannot explain the delay. But, your comments have arrived, and so, I am now responding.

I am "jewish" by birth. My Mother has always informed us of this fact. I was raised in the "christian" faith. But, it was not until My incarceration that, I began to actually 'study' G'ds word (Tanakh). When I actually began to research the claims of the, so called, 'new testament.' I found that, what Yahshua taught were real to My soul, a Realness I did not find with any other way.

Searching the 'Tanakh' from a hebrew view point led Me to discover that, the western interpretaion of the 'scriptures' was fatally flawed and off base. That if we neglect the Tanakh, we will never understand (yahshua). He is the center of all scripture. I further found that, the entire 'Tanakh' is the good news, as it leads to the coming one (Yahshua) as the fulfilment of all scripture(s).

Yahshua made a statement:

"Do not think that I came to destroy the law or the Prophets.
I did not come to destroy but to fulfill."

See, Matthew 5:18. This declaration aided My conclusion that, 'Tanakh' had not by any means become void by the coming of Masshiach, and that, He came to fulfill the writings concerning himself, as the way to salvation for all of man. Also, Yahshua continued to reiterate that:

"Assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or tittle shall by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. 19 Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of G'd. but, whoever does and teaches them, shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven."

See, Matthew 5:19. These commandments spoken of by Yahshua, are the 'commandments of G'd, the Father. Further study lead Me to understand that, these (10) commandments house/contain, all of the other 'instructions' found in Torah. That is, those not imposed by man. We serve a great G'd!

Paul also, taught to keep the "Righteous requirements of the law/instructions." See, Romans 2:26. That is, those handed to Moses by G'd. In fact, it is Pauls commentary that, most westerners stumble over. They fail to comprehend that, pauls teaching were couched, in "Tanakh." So, one who did not have proper understanding of "Tanakh" could not understand or follow paul. See, 2 Peter 3:16. and this is true because, Where Paul was teaching at: 1 Timothy 4:3. Regarding the things that, "G'd created to be eaten by man." Paul was not talking about, snakes, bear, cat and dog. Paul was referencing the things that, (YHWH) had declared clean at: Leveiticus 11:24. How could anyone think that, Paul was teaching out side of 'Tanakh?' G'd never made/created the things we consume today, to be eaten by man.

I hope that I have answered your question adequately. If not, please feel free to ask further. Also, I may be reached at the address above. However, I am not appreciated by the custodial personnel within our prison system. So, delay's and missed mail may be a consequence of this hatred. Nevertheless, I will do all that depends on Me to respond promptly. Again, Thank's for your concern.
Wa Alechem Shalom and Barucha!!!!

It is My hope that, all men and women would study the word that has been made available to them. and not hate the Hebrew. Because in doing so, one may find that, they hate themselves.

If you believe that, Yahshuah hu Maschiach (Jesus is Christ) you are messianic. The Messianic believer's were falsly called christians by greeks. Greek's do not define Hebrew's. See, Acts 11:26 and, I have nothing against greek's. It's simply the truth.
