

in the well organized on going revolution in Ukraine, there have been clashes between antigovernment protesters & the police, that have left protesters dead, & protesters have been taken hostage, disappeared, & killed, by covert pro government forces, these are typical current threats to revolution & revolutionaries, for a successful revolution revolutionaries must effectively handle these threats, which means understanding which revolutionaries are most exposed to these threats, & which revolutionaries are being targeted by these threats, to be effective this type of strategic planning has to be done internally with in revolutionary movements coalition organizations, i can provide the basic format for these techniques & tactics to be adapted from, this has to be done on a membership basis in one or more of the formations i have put forth in my blog, & only by members men or women who can dedicate themselves to a security position in these formations, & only by direct contact, robert thrower #47717 centennial correctional facility p.o. box 777 unit F-2-13 canon city, CO 81215, i will respond in the most timely manner possible to all contacts, i'm taking care to make sure these techniques & tactics are not abused, these techniques & tactics fall into various categories, & these type of programs must be on going, & related projects can take a few months, & involve team work, qualifications for these programs, current teaching certification, automotive mechanic, paramedic, computer literacy/repair, construction, good physical condition, good discipline, able to work extended periods alone, aptitude for advance self defense/ security training/work, the minimum duration for member involvement in these programs is two years

Reply ID: <sup>w</sup>373

page 2

post for <http://betweenthebar.org/blogs/1491>