

Reply ID: jgg4

2-11-14

Chamonix

Cool name!!

Sorry 4 the indescribable lateness. Life in a 6x9 has made me a hoarder. Sometimes I lose track of things -- documents included. But God be thanked for His being my memory. "And the Holy Spirit shall bring all things 2 Ur remembrance" -- so I'm not afraid 2 pray "God help me remember where I put (things)" -- "God help me remember my appointments" -- etc.. I highly recommend trying it sometimes ☺ Faith in God can be fun & exciting. Promise U that.

You are most welcome for the poem! Praise God. Now I know God had U in mind when He gave me the words 2 say. ☺ God says, "U R welcome Chamonix." He loves U enuff 2 give U ~~comforting~~ comforting words of joyous ~~encouragement~~ encouragement. God knows what we need even before we do so He is more than able 2 meet us where we're at. We didn't know we needed Jesus but our Heavenly Father did. Isaiah 63:7-9 The Father loves U so much He hand wrote U this letter. ☺

11-11-5

April 01 2028

Chamonix, I personally thank you for comments on the line U loved ("the apple pie, of his eternal eyes.") U said "it has really great rhythm - & a wonderful message!" The "really great rhythm" part left me encouraged & praising God. See I 1/2 NO formal training in poetry. I 1/2 read books on writing poems 1/2 never intentionally sat down to write a sonnet, haiku etc -- nor 1/2 I intentionally sought 2 make sure the poem flows rhythmly or syllabably etc -

So I 😊 & say inside my ♥ "look at God" He's the bestest poet. Lord knows I've been hoping & wishing that they started a poetry class here. I got the big word, but when it comes to writing I'm more of a "need hands on experience" type of guy. God will take care of it. we walk by faith not sight.

I got ur comments on New Years Eve at approx 8pm. I was uplifted in my spirit man as I took notice of ★ FAVORITE The excitement ushered me back 2 childhood; the youthfulness of grade school captured in shy boyish faces influenced by words of affirmation contained in geometrical shapes. I felt like the teacher wanted me 2 go to detention in a relentless effort 2 use me 2 brighten the atmosphere. There - unpunished - I would scribble ~~no get go~~ gently scritch on the black board 100 X's "the apple pie, of his eternal eyes" And so it is Glad u loved the message. The good news stays wonderful.

I plan 2 send your "comments" 2 my daughter whom I'm in the process of teaching - success as a writer comes from writing from ur heart & not necessarily in getting published / winning a contest. That writing that touches lives is better than writing that touches ur pocket-book$. That writing to glorify God is a million X's better than writing 2 glorify yourself, as an author, poet - etc -.

I know that as long as I pray 4 words 2 say before I write that I will be put in a smile on God's face.

;

Sincerely

Jesus Sentry

Jesus Secretary

over → *

P.S. here's a poem inspired by ~~new years~~ New Years

~~God~~
PS. Got questions about God, Jesus etc -

Please ask
Thank U

I AM WE

