

Reply ID: i2yu

Dear 2peas1pod/Dawn,

Tim and I, are working diligently for prison reform. I suggest you read MASS Incarceration, There'e the rub, and other articles on this website. A lot of the stuff is written, "...as told to me by..." So, I hope you enjoy the writing. As for my being in Shirley, I have already seen parole and got a five year set-back. I see them again in 2014, which they will probably set me back again until 2019. My mom lives in Colorado and I have not spoken to her in over 10 years. You are well aware of my mom what you may not know is what it was like growing up. Which explains the 10 year split.

Your husband is out and on parole? I wonder if either of you are interested in taking a role with what Tim and I are doing? We should have a CURE-ARM website up soon. However, what takes days out there, takes months, sometimes years in here. I look forward to hearing from you soon.
God Bless,