

Paul,

I received your comments. You have the right to fill the way you do. My claim that Hatch shot Mr. Willis is supported by the evidence that should have been investigated and brought out during trial. If you like, I'll put documents on the blog and show it all to you. And that me taking the victims boots was the prosecutor's spin. Mr. Carter did not have boots.

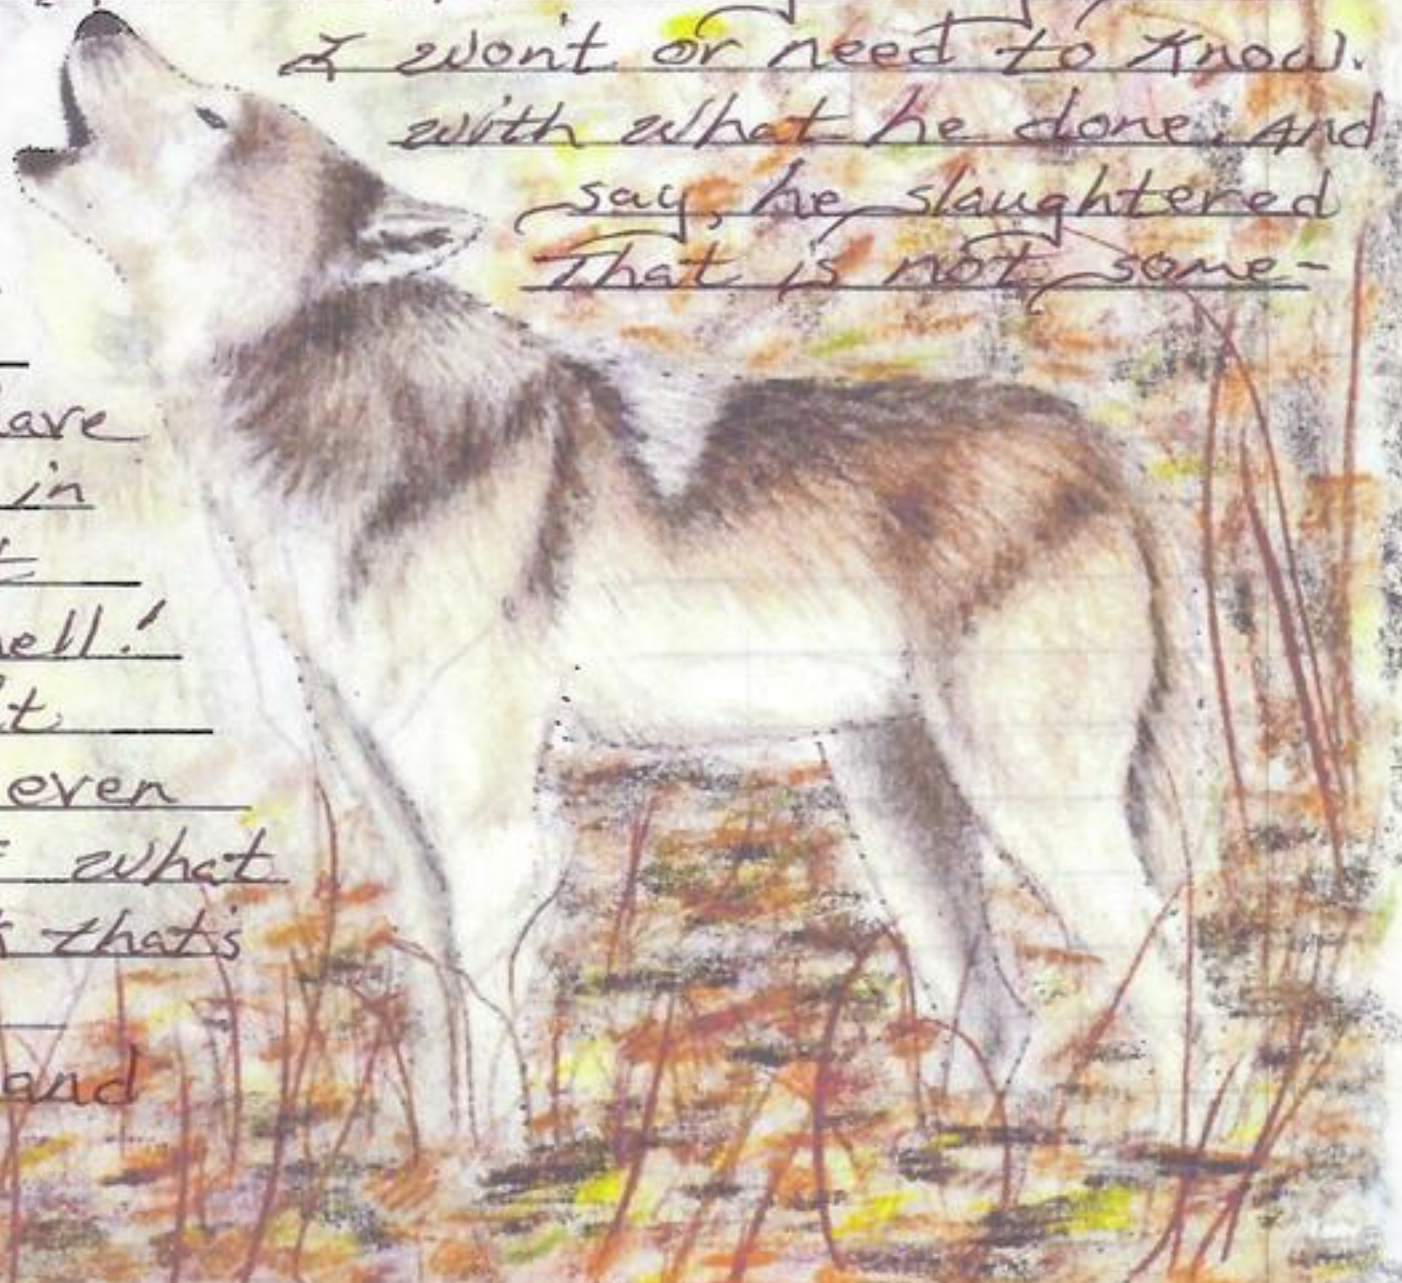

And I haven't had years of due process. The judge David C. Wiggins in my case stalled my appeals for 12, 13 years. He didn't want the evidence brought out. Cause it reflected badly on Judge Lance Day my prosecutor and Judge Henry Davis my trial attorney, so he stalled my appeals protecting them. And if you'd like, I'll place the documents up on my blog and show you.

Thomas Whittaker, I wrote him a couple of times back in 2010, 2011. I don't know anything about his case, nor do I want or need to know.

He has to live from what you his whole family. thing that I would want to have to live with day in and day out. That must be total hell!

Bill Hupp I don't think he could even admit to his self what he done. I think that's why he always denied it to me and with what he done. And say, he slaughtered that is not some-others. I think that's how he copped with it. I think he did question himself. 'What was I thinking?' 'What's wrong with me?' 'Bill did drugs, was he messed up that day?' I don't know. I don't condone what he done. We can't change the past. We can change the future. The death penalty does not work. Violence breeds violence. The history of it shows that it never worked, not even when they executed men the same day they convicted them. What did Christ say, 'you without sin cast the first stone.' Can you cast that stone? Are you without sin? I doubt it. For it is written, 'All have sinned and come short of the glory of God.'

I wish you well. Please take care.

God bless you.
 In Peace & Love
 Jonnie
