

2-14-14

Love is an endless ballad of forever
Depths without measure.
of celebration
measured
for worse or better
of one life
together
bonded by one soul
but two bodies
heavenly bliss
evident
and can't be missed by those surrounding.

So please except this as a just because:
because what I see in your eyes is what gives meaning to the word

Love

Happy Valentine's
Day
