

Rachael:

Thank you so much for your encouragement and filing a complaint. I'm extremely grateful to you. Currently, I've been in the "work unit" without a job for over fifteen months. They actually bring people from other units to work skipping over me without proper justification. But that's okay, the more they kick me the more evidence they leave that I'm being kicked. I'm currently in the process of filing a 42 USC §1983 federal retaliation lawsuit. I'll be suing them in their individual capacity. So everyone who wants to involve themselves to keep me quite will have to answer to the court and be held accountable for their actions. This is something that many of these people are not used to.

Keep in touch. I'll be posting the steps I take as I go along. I'll also continue to post their efforts of retaliation. Thanks again Rachael.

Sincerely,
Rich.
