Rita,

Thank you for reading my blogs & hearing my voice. It's fated that we should meet, and I feel very blessed to make your acquaintance. Everyday has felt like a new beginning because each day has been an opportunity to do something with my life in the service of God. I've been called to help people as best as I can, even when I can't help myself. I keep a positive attitude with the support of people like yourself.

I've been a bit under the weather this week with all of the fluctuating temperatures--hot to freezing cold. I haven't let that stop me though. Can't afford to.

I don't know much about Belgium, but I look forward to learning what I can. Through your artistic eye I am sure to be captivated. Thank you for your well wishes. I'm strengthened by your support. I do hope to hear from you again soon.
