

"Reply ZD" bmg 4

Ms. Smith, first let me start by saying "CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE". This is an axiom you are obviously oblivious to. Another thing, I do not like nor do I dislike you. Honestly, I do not have either the time or the emotional energies to waste in that manner on you, or anyone else for that matter. Its counter productive and unrewarding. The posts I had made prior to your comment, were more about exposing the unethical and illegal antics of an out of control judge; and an overburdened, inefficient, mismanaged, dysfunctional and wasteful child protective agency, than anything else. However, I do take issue with anyone's lack of integrity, and lack of respect for the truth, this includes you. Therefore, I am now compelled to shed a broader light than I initially intended, on facts surrounding the litigation in trial case no. # DF-09-7655, and Appeal no. # 05-13-00958-CV.

Be careful in the future, when you of all people, make bold suggestive statements regarding Accountability and credibility, as it shall surely come back to haunt you. In closing, I must admit that your comments about my purportedly abusing you and wanting you to of all things, abort my child, is ludicrous, devoid of truth, and contradicts all that you told the court-appointed psychologist, DR.

MYRNA DARTSON (Phone No. (214) 335-4268) during her evaluation of you. Possibly the cause of this factual confusion on your behalf stems from you suffering one too many blows to the head, with Eric Glenn's pistol, fists, and/or feet during the many years of documented incidents of domestic violence Eric has perpetuated in and around the residence shared by you and our daughter.

I encourage you to please feel free to share any additional comments you may have about anything that appears on this blog.
