How are you doing? Just a short letter to let you know some about me; hopefully catch your interest so we can communicate on a deeper level..

You know the basics already, I'm a real open; active person who likes to stay busy, have fun; keep life interesting.. I stay outside a lot when I can; I like to work out; play basketball.. They don't give you much to do other than that..

I'm close to a few people in here but not many cause it's not to many I really trust.. But I'm real loyal to my family; friends; expect them to be the same. A lot of people like to play games but I try to steer clear of that. It's just not me.. I have family I keep in touch with by writing, talking on the phone; visiting with.

I try to keep busy when I'm in my room.. I like to write (obviously) I listen to the radio; read all different types of books; magazines. I have got into the habit of writing poems, some guys in here have sent them to their mom and wives who like them.. So I'm okay at it.

Well, I don't want to bore you with my first words
so I'll cut this short for now.. BUT, I hope to meet some new people who are willing to get to know each other more; keep things interesting..

I'm cool with getting to know ANYONE; taking chances because life is all about chances; seeing where they lead..

I do have some pictures to; I will be putting them on my site so you're not writing to a stranger.

But for now I'm gone; hopefully will hear from you... whoever you are...
