CJP

I received your reply/comments. Thank you. I'm in need of your assistance if at all possible. I've got Classification threatening me with mail suspension, ect. I'm currently in confinement. The help I'm seeking is for individuals to look over my blog post, to see if I have at any time straight outside, I'm looking for someone to write me, send me goods, help me pay for a lawyer ect. And if you see anything like that, just black that line out. I'm in a battle with Classification, and it's far from being over. They placed me in a position on February 28, 2014 Friday that resulted in me being jumped on by an inmate they knew I had a problem with. 65 minutes later, they write a D.R. for a web site that's 15 years old. WWW.ANGELFIRE.COM and it's become a mess. I need help with bringing attention to this. I've asked several of my friends to go on BTB, and search for these errors that I could have made accidentally asking for legal help, or letters.

Anyways don't shut my blog down, I need this voice. I'll stay strong. Please take care and let me know you received this.
