

Good morning Hannie

March 4, 2014

I received your response last night, thank you for writing. I understand your disappointment in that letter "My Beloved Brother Ronald" I get this all the time. There's a Camp meeting in South Carolina the first 300 who send $58.00 and sow their seed, or the first 120 who sows a $1,000 seed will receive God's blessings. It's the separation of Church and state that allows Con men, to use the blood and suffering of Christ as their con game. This should be illegal, but it's not. And I get letters in all the time similar to what you read here. He warned of False prophets in Matthew 7:15-23 and the False sheep, who are goats in Matthew 25:31-46 yes many shall come, but few shall be chosen. But I disagree as far as salvation being free, salvation comes through our obedience to Christ, obeying his commands. John 12:50. For it's the commands of the Father through the son that leads to eternal life. Only those who truly believe will truly obey, and that is apply the greatest commandment's Mark 12:30-31 There's no commandment's greater than these. Well take care Hannie.

God bless you.

In Peace + Love

Ronnie
