"MORE ABOUT THE"
DISCIPLINARY REPORTS.

This Disciplinary Report (DR) Log # 213-140287, I've been told, was a result, of someone calling in, and reporting the WWW.ANGELFIRE.COM website. I don't know, if they told this lie, to cover up the fact, that they, (Classification) made a critical mistake, in the 2007 Special Review (SR), which resulted, in this Friday February 28, 2014, 7:55 am, Fighting DR # 213-140286. That is solely a resort, of Classifications Failure to do their job. It's strange, that 65 minutes after that, I'm given the mail violation DR, makes you wonder! "If nothing else, it sure looks very suspicious!! She didn't even wait, until the end of the day, didn't allow any other D.R.s to be written. How do I know this? Well the numbers, Fighting DR Log # 213-140286. mail violation DR. 213-140287. The Fighting DR, was processed at 9am. The mail violation DR, at 9:30am. It doesn't look good, especially, since the D.R., is coming out of Classification, whose negligence was a result of the Fighting DR. I'm just saying, this sure looks fishy sure smells fishy, must be fishy. It kind of smells like these sardines.

I don't know if that's true, but this I do know. Classification told my mother that they could have given me 60 days on Disciplinary Confinement (DC) for this Fighting DR. 213-140286. and 30 days for DR. 213-140287. True mail violation carries 30 days on DC. under chapter 33-601.314 F.A.C. 9-14. Fighting is 2-4, only carries 30 days on DC. so I know, for a fact that they lied about this, that being said, it makes me, that much more, "suspicious"; that their lying, about the rest of it, so I struggle to believe what they're selling. wouldn't you? I'm trying to find out more, and as I do, I'll share it with others on this blog. until next time, may God bless you all and keep you safe.

In Peace & Love
