

POLITICAL STRATEGY

Any primary steps towards the direction of reconstituting a Japhetic Theocratic Monarchy under the Indirect Power of Christ the King must begin with the personal sanctification of the members of the Counter-Revolution. A relentless Crusade must be waged within the hearts and minds of each individual member in order to form a disciplined and organized vanguard ready and willing to advance Christ's banner against the organized forces of deception at work in the world today. Personal and liturgical prayer, the Sacrament of Penance, and (at the minimum, if possible) weekly Tridentine Mass attendance must be utilized as a means of cultivating the Grace necessary for every member, individually and collectively, to uproot the personal vices, malevolent habits, and erroneous modes of apprehension prevalent in the psychological make-up of potential Counter-Revolutionary members.

Only when solid Virtue and Discipline has been inculcated into the souls of its members and the irrational impulses of the flesh have been brought firmly under the control of the rational mind, can members submit their individual wills to the collective furtherance of mutual objectives of the Counter-Revolutionary Vanguard. This must be the primary, most basic step, in the direction of the attainment of our objectives. We must exhort, inspire, and encourage each other into creating a culture where each member strives for virtue and in opposition to vice. We must form and create a sanctified community, however small, even if only two people, where the Spirit of Christ can permeate our lives, thoughts, and actions. This is what must be the first step in, God willing, the waging of a continuous struggle against the forces of darkness at work in the world today.
