IT

Good morning. I received your comment. yes, sometimes you can avoid things, other times no matter how hard you try you can't change the other person's mind. Believe me I tried to avoid this. Now that we've been down here, the fight's over, we've talked and put it behind us. This turned out to be a blessing. But 50% of cooperation can not solve an issue that's fomenting for 14 plus years. It took both of us to put this issue behind us. One person can talk, it takes both sides to make it work. IF you could have stopped this disagreement, you'd be a miracle worker. Cause he wanted what he wanted and that was to fight. I'm done with it, he's done with it, so it's all good. some times you do stupid things, and the other party, no matter how much time has passed, doesn't want to hear it. That's what happened here. Take care OF yourself.

God bless you
