Hey everyone it has been awhile sense I have made a post. I just want y'all to know I am negative for HIV.

To my sweetest Stephen when you get to Texas I need a address to get in touch with you. I love you and that will never change. I'll be home in December of 2015.

Stephen I've tried to call you is there something wrong with your phone I am not able to get through to you. I am sending a picture with this post. I would love a picture of you.

Well guys I'm going to go for now
