

RANT TO RAVE

MARCH 2014 ENTRY

First Let me Apologize for Not submitting these Blogs under the correct sub-titles that I have created for them. I simply don't have access to my personal property in the current state of confinement I'm in, I most likely may never see those Notes, finished But yet posted Blogs Again. As you can or will see from the attach exhibits below I'm in IMU Again. This time on a indefinite program. I may never get out of IMU again. Oh! It's against the Law ~~and~~ and constitution But when you're the Government who's to tell you what you can and can't do...

Oh! Their strategy was so good. I'd disguised my awareness of it as best as I could. But I have weaknesses they don't have. I need support to really back them up. They don't. They. That is; is the Government... The Washington state Government I dare not say The American. The unique scenario was to be such a nuisance to provoke a chronic psychosis and place the horrendous ordeal on the vulnerable Negro man.

Literally I ask myself why would they allow such a thing. Every time I look at the TV, read a popular magazine or such, I see a extreme white socialist agenda with a black twist. I say to myself this shit is crazy... and jigga! It's the time.

It's getting to you... Then I say to myself But what if it is true. That a socialist agenda has penetrated so deep into the good ole us of a society that they know have the power and influence to turn the us into a communist / socialist state? After all, Russia is not a socialist order any more.

I have some socialist ideals. But not the kind that stop the dreamers from turning their dreams into reality or to keep the poor, poor... First they'll have to provoke anarchy. Then mass hysteria. Then a sound system of justice and social idealism and there you have it. A pretty little portrait.

I mean the only thing you have to do is turn to ABC on Sunday and you'll see that show, what would you do?

It's really not a concept based on social justice or responsibility. It's based on social idealism...

If the US Government want social justice and responsibility, they must first in-steal it within itself. Project that. The citizens of the US then will resume such social traits.

It's the same crap they're trying to push down my throat. Look at it! (1) They ~~setup~~ set up shop in public. (2) They invade people sense of privacy in a public setting with a false sense of a crisis, playing on pedestrians sense of awareness, decency and naivety. (3) To push their social concept.

There is a such thing as public responsibility, but there is also such a thing as invasion of a person house, family, cultural, personal or religious value...

Is it possible that a very powerful deceptive evil entity is attempting to produce genuine fear of the citizens of this nation through run of AMOK, disruption. And they're a little more than willingly to create a little mayhem to accomplish their goals.

Lets gang up and spit on them! Beat them, set them up... because they don't believe as we do...

Lets say you won't tell about a bank getting Rob. But will say something about a kid getting snatch up. By chance these peoples find out.

Do they then have a right to unlawfully intrude into your life to exploit that belief. maybe they might wish to set you up.

RAVE TO RAVE

What if your beliefs is AGAINST living a Homosexual or Lesbian life style for yourself and your childrens. Do they then have a right to push that life style down your throat and force your child to ACCEPT such personal views. Oh! Good God. Lets not make a statement or comment out of anger or ignorants... Knock!! Knock!! ~~There~~ there, they go at your front door. Now-a-days, you need not say anything, they'll just APPEAR before you, testing your NAIVITY... My intention was to blog about me being jump by 3 Not 2 Government Agents. That's Not mention in the Paperwork before you. The one that's not mention is The American civil service homeland security Anti-Terrorist Task Force Agents posing as a Prisoner... I wanted to blog about Eric Doug B. cutting my face with his knife and Ronald C. digging his finger into that wound and with his fingernail carving a nice deep wound on my face, sucking my blood off his fuckin finger like he's a disciple of Christ trying to quit his Thrust. I guess it's some kind of face scaring ritual they do to NESCO people. It's Name start with an M. But the events before & after the Little Sauntable kept materializing before my disturb minds eye, annoying the F*CK out of me... I keep referring back to the incident before the Sauntable where they sent this mix Brother at me with the Mission in his sick twisted head that I was some kind of lost, sick, fire starter, who needed a good sphincter shot to be healthy and free. absence, isn't it. That's the way this life is. But, the more I thought about writing about this event the more I saw how many pages it would be. Then some indignant, spastic thought pop up in my mind. write and submit it to the Pen America for their september writing contest and blog excerpts of it. Who Nose. you might even can find a publishing agent and publish it. I'll need an editor for sure because it will for sure be Pledge with grammar illness (illnesses. Shit! who would want to buy this shit!!! and read about how I got F*CK over once AGAIN and my crazy, absurd ass notions.
