Hanna Danna (Love the name) ☺

Well, I just collected several of your comments today from the mailman. There is one particular comment dated later than the others so I shall respond to this one first.

Let me begin this verbal journey by thanking you for not only responding to my post's but also asking me how I've been. When a incarcerated individual, like myself, receives an inquiry about how they've been, it's a sign of benevolence. And is a beacon of light to a man trapped amongst darkness.

Please let your lovely mother know that I am deeply flattered that she upholds my words with such respect that she literally believes them to be the best "thoughts" ever. Now I feel all warm and fuzzy inside. LOL ☺

There is no need to apologize for your late response. I usually get one response per person so to get a second set of responses from you feels like I scored a second date with you. LOL (Humor, you gotta love it)

Question: Which is stronger in your life - faith or fear?
There are 3,573 promises in the Bible and God never promised us freedom from fear or immunity from life's complications. Nor are we assured that everyday will be filled with sunshine and smiling flowers. Through faith in God, defeat and despair are transformed into stepping stones of sweet success.

Success requires decision, discipline, and determination. Make the decision, discipline yourself until it becomes automatic, and stay determined until it becomes part of who you are.
Success is right in front of you. Do you see it? Now, all you have to do is reach out and grab it. It's there for the taking so take it!
Your new handle shall be ~~Hanna~~ "Success" Banana because you will succeed. I believe in you. Your personal aura screams ambition and I shall pray for your prosperity. Warm hugs Hanna!!
