a principal plank in a revolutionary platform, for revolution in America, must involve reparations for unemployed & underemployed workers, workers in the informal & underground economies, & prisoner slave labor, from the prison, police & military industrial complexes, & reparations for workers in general, from the security & corporate states, because of the oppressive & corrupt nature of the prison, police & military states, & the security & corporate states. This will involve a force dynamic, the objectives of this force should be the disintegration, collapse, toppling & or overthrow of these states,
