

December 26, 2012

Blogging and Gender Revolution

By Queen Jennifer Gann

(Submission to "Hidden Expressions, Vol. 2" by TJLPI)

Dear LGBTQ family and allies, greetings! ☺ My name is Jennifer (a.k.a.
Baby Girl), and I'm a 43 year old trans-woman in California state prison. I would like to share with my sisters an excellent way for released LGBTQ prisoners to express their gender identity and continue building the struggle for prison abolition.
It's called blogging.

As an aspiring author, artist, and poet,
I began blogging in March 2011 about my personal struggles and prison experiences.
What is a blog? It's like an on-line journal
where you can post articles, drawings, fiction,
letters, news, photos, poetry, political analysis,
and other material.

I welcome all LGBTQ people and revolutionary activists to check out my blog
and post your comments at:

<http://betweenthebars.org/blogs/490/john-jennifer-gann>.

Join the gender revolution!

Viva las Amazonas! ☺