

• Rivers •

I cried a long time ago
And I didn't like it
My eyes have become irritated
By salt
Red rivers which can not be parted
By their whiteness
I have nothing to give
But weightless words
And dreams
Which will take me a life time
To fulfill
So rivers flow
And fill my heart wounds
With salt
Never had it felt pain
Like now
Now that my wounds have reopened
Now that water has flowed out
Of my soul
Now that salty waters
Have flooded my eyes
Rivers flow
And my heart just keeps crying
