

P.S. Zap! I need to know more about your e-bay enterprise bro. like how well does prisoner art sell on that site? Is just the artwork displayed or is there room to spotlight the artist there too? Will you research all you can on Prison Art sales online and help me get some idea of the genre and the price range. All I've got is time and some talent, and as you see below... there's no reason that I shouldn't be able to splurge on some tempting cheese cake or something when these food-sales are passed around... other than... yup- "starving artist". Let me know what you can okay? Let me know how everybody is doing out there too.

Peace
