Hello Lavender,

Thank you, for the transcription of, 'HELP JUSTICE TO PREVAIL'.
You ask if I have any indication of my blogging being of help to advance my cause? My answer has to be, yes! The seeds of TRUTH have been planted and are now beginning to sprout. Nature had to take its course, and now the truth will no longer be hidden from view as I press forward at coming out of obscurity. My having been held in obscurity while others controlled my representation is the problem I am overcoming thanks to being able to blog. Sure, I wish things had been easier and moved quicker, but I have persevered and for me that is what is important. My voice grows stronger as the seeds planted promise to blossom to bear much fruit in revealing the truth. Thank you for your help in nurturing the process. I prefer my spiritual name 'One Eagle', but I am held to the use of Milo Rose, so I use both accordingly. Your help is much appreciated, please continue being active.

Respectfully,

Milo "One Eagle" Rose
