

"Open mine eyes"

Open mine eyes, that I might see it all clearly, enable me to step into the heart of this thing called reality.

Mysteries of life; how they dance in ecstasy before me.
No inhibitions, all enigmas revealed - the doubting soul healed.

Within the ancient temple of the Universe, we discover how it all was meant to be.

Before love's immaculate altar I kneel in prayer,
Open mine eyes, somehow, some-way -
Free me from life's constant despair.

Tossed about upon life's turbulent sea,
Ever in search for someone to calm the violent storms within me,
One to open mine eyes that I might see.

Let Ra's soothing rays descend upon me,
And Ra-Hoor at his helm reveal unto me
the keys which one needs - to set sail and break free.

David "StX" Bauguess
September 28, 2012