

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION U.S SUPREME COURT'S DECISION.

Tuesday, April 22, 2014, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld Michigan State's Voters Right to end Affirmative Action.

How shall the court later resolve this case Decision with voters, like happened in California, and Wisconsin, ban on Equal marriage.

Ward Connelly, a Black; helped pass Michigan's Ban. Justice Clarence Thomas, a Black man, on the court, wanted to rule Affirmative Action, as unconstitutional.

The court ruled 6 to 2 in Michigan's favor.

Just another day in the good ole
USA!
