MAY 2014 Entry

I picture myself in a Life film other than this one. Living vibrantly and successful and because I truly comprehend that I'm my only true motivator, this anger my so many scornful admirers, with their fascinating reluctance to not see me climb to my precious ethnic glory or obtain what's rightfully mine without them by my side offering their unwanted assistants. Their presents is as much desired as nuclear radiation poisoning by the Japanese. I feel as though my life platform has been struck with an proverbial atomic bomb and I (as the Japanese) suffer the aftermath of such inhuman strike upon my nation, country, land, government, people and house. Intrigued at the devastation sauted in the tragedy of my purple bumps illness my adversary masquerade their appalling action as medical assistants to camouflage their atrocity as my condition grows grave by the second. And because my inconspicuous sneaks mask on some part as family comprehend such with their meticulous fascination to see me tortured in this life and that's why I strive for that positive light. Praying to seized their caches of arms they so eagerly use against me.

As I battle gallantly the neurotic of my environment who push their totalitarianism as delicious platter for all to consume. The pity that's before me I set out to banish from my existants with addressing these two questions.

(1) Who am I, (2) must I seek self forgiveness.
Let me be up front with you if it wasn't for Iran and the precious kindness of the people of that country and in particular the Amir-ul-Mu'mineen (a.s.) Public Library donation I would not be able to answer these questions which is presented here.

What I hate about the authoritarian, totalitarian Democratic state for which I abide in is their undying approach to prevent free thinking ethnic research, thoughts and opinion that's derived by the Negro people... race...

Because the blacks damn well know what will occur and the white fear the certainty of self governing...

Flaunted by their klepto neurotic gown and mask psychosis the blacks fail to see the ramification of their action and because they lack such understanding they as the whites that puppet master them is deceived and walk hand in hand, believing that they will weather this storm as they always have.

But I guess Churchill didn't see the Hitlerization of the good US of A. Because the words freedom, democracy, and liberation is distorted from its true meaning as he and them know it. Or maybe we have just been deceived of what democracy truly means and those precious, very precious few get to see a up close and personal meaning of it's definition.

RANT TO RAVE

Thus, don't go assuming that I'm some kind of pro communist. I'm pro-ethnarc.. Pro ethnic Liberty and Life.

I don't desire or wish to get caught up in Arab politics when I'm in search of the truth.

I'm already poor, defenseless, ~~unhealthy~~ unhealthy destitute. I have no desire to strap a bomb on my body for no one causes...

Especially when I'm trying to figure shit out... And I sure don't want some NAZI Ass* Black, Arab or white telling me to take out my breads because he believe that it's side in a knot when we both know it's Breached..

What I hate is, when they believe that I'm so lost and weak that I can't determine that they only wish to keep me in that proverbial mental Ball and chain. Shit! we're the slaves of every Race but ourselves.

I desire not enslave myself, but to set it free..

I don't want to know what communism or democracy is under a white concept. I desire to know what democracy and communism means to me and how I may find my individual Liberated Path. Who Am I?

shit! How many of you, of us, has not ask this question and come to this conclusion as if it matters to the so many ~~people~~ of the common man and women that is simply trying to navigate themselves through the murky waters of day to day life.

It doesn't for so many clear reason it's absurd. why? shit, because the simple common man and women still face with the difficult task of trying to keep a roof over their head, food on the table and their body cloth.

And once they got this down they desire to find love, healthy love that last a life time.

And I assert that a person need not open up the question of good and evil within side ones self to unlock the door to deeper endless questions that will send you on a life journey to find those answers. In the mist of them searching for those answers they cheat themselves out of experiencing the essence of living life.

The only thing they truly need to understand is the essence of common decency. once they come to understand this simple task, then the common man, women only need to demand that ones government give them life or give them liberty so they may find the government that will..

which is badly not the case in this headless governments.

They use the common people to serve their aim instead of protecting them from the true evil that lies..

They fail at this approach because they choose to be that evil for which they are appointed by that divine being to protect them from when he bestowed the title of governing upon them for his ultimate design...

Human evolution...

These animals and savages that have a strangle hold on my liberty kept pushing this one pro feminist read down my already shot throat knowing that I will descend, at a time when I was going down this solo path...

The book is The Houses of Healing by Robin C. What I hate more than reading this bull shit A*s feminist read (and her assertion that all a man needs is a good cry) that I could not get these evil beings out of my life...

As I told them. The thing she got twisted more than anything is how she confuse personal traits, she write it in confusion because she either fail to understand them or selfish and wish not to disclose her findings. And I shall not address ~~these~~ these characteristics here. A man or women need not understand why they like such and such for a period of time and no longer enjoy such a thing in today's present date. What's relevant is that, that person enjoy their life and whatever their enjoyment is for that time do not unjustly harm others.

The reason why people are largely fuck up in the head is because of the governing body failing to be constitutionally responsible.

And really don't bother with the second question for all of the above reason. Do the book have some wisdom? Yes. What read doesn't that deal with self-help. would I read it again? No. why? Because hopefully I will be strong enough to fight off my oppressor and do what the hell I want...

Who am I? Who are you? The answers are quite clear...

We're people who's not trying to be consumed by our prejudice and hatred in our bid to simply enjoy life...

What little there is of it.
