Are we who are in Mashiach, still subject to sin? Not according to scripture! For the past couple of days, I have had the misfortune of having a man that, I have been speaking with, try and convince Me that, We are powerless to sin. and that, we are sick (constantly). However, this doctrine is not of (YHWH). Nowhere have I been able to find supporting scripture for this belief, in Mashiach? In fact, from the beginning, (YHWH) has been informing man that, "We should rule over sin." See, Gen.4:7.

I guess, man is stil in the business of creating for himself, a GOD that, suits what it is that, "they" desire to do. So, to cop the plea that, 'we are powerless to/ against sin.' suits some people. However, it is not Biblical.

A brother whom it is reported has performed notable miricles, though the indwelling spirit of Mashiach, Paul, states at: Rom. 8:9:

"If the spirit of Mashiach is in you, the body is dead because of sin."

Hence, If we have the spirit of Mashiach, we are not bound to sin. and have the power to resist it. and, we sin when we choose to throw-off the governance of the spirit. and sin. See, Heb. 10:28 - 29.

I believe that, I have the spirit of Mashiach. and have received the truth of his revelation to know that:

"if anyone be in Mashiach Yahshuah, he is a new creation; old things have become new."

I believe that, our very nature is changed. That, we are given a new spirit and mind. See, Jeremiah 31 et seq. Ezekiel 36 et seq. Joel 2:28 - 32. However this spirit is subject to us. See, 1 Cor. 14:32. and will not force us to obey or submit. Thus, we may grieve the spirit. and vex it. See, Eph. 4:30.

The brother Paul/Saul is quite clear at: Rom. 6:22 - 23. We find that, we have been set free from ismning. No man in this doctrine may claim to be a slave of sin. That man, is preaching a different doctrine then that of mashiach and the diciples. Now I will agree that, in our physical bodies (the flesh) there is no jgood thing. That, it, is an unseemly and filthy thing. But, the new man in mashiach, is not. See, Rom. 7:18. and, no flesh shall be justified before (YHWH). See, Gal.2:16. See also, 1 Pet. 4:1 - 5. advising us that, we may reach a point wherein, we no longer are combered with sin. and are persecuted for it.

We no longer willfully sin. we have been baptised into Mashiach. We are free of sin. We no longer iniquitously sin. We may stumble and fall. But, we do not willfully sin. and are free free from it. So, when people that, profess that, they have been waling with the (adon'i) for year's (decades) claim that, they are powerless against sin, Note that, person. and be careful. People do what they want to do. If they wanted to obey (G'd) as much as they wanted to commit adultery. They would. "People do what they want to do." Those that want to please (G'd) ususally do!

Cage Semeach, Happy Holiday's... Please enjoy your remeberance of Passover (peshach).

Shalom, Shalom, Shalom!!!

PS: Please pray for this brother mentioned herein that, He will discover the liberation in Mashiach, is that, from sin. and that, he is not bound to sin. As the new life given him in Mashiach, is a beautiful one. and that, it is who he is. Not his physical (fleshly) body. That, there is a treasure in this erthen vessle. and that, that treasure is who he is, Ameen!
