Golden Promises

BydeJarey

I Promise to be there, everyday that you wake,
I Promise to keep a smile upon your beautiful face.
I Promise to love you, more than words can show, I Promise the love I give to you, will continue to,
Promise that the love I give, will never stop, Why? so someone can pick up the diamond I drop so someone can cherish you and the qualities you and you forget about me, and the melodies my heart can't promise you the stars, or the moon above but I Promise not to hurt you, and give nothing when I Promise something, I always come through, Promise to always be there, and dedicate my life to no need to worry, no need to be afraid, Promise to hold you close, and say it'll be OK, Promise to comfort you, Promise to make you smile,
Promise to take that extra step, walk that extra mile,
There's no nonsense, there's no time for games,
Promise to be loyal, and not emotionally wreck you, Love is an action word, and you're the love of my life,
Promise to have your back, Promise to make you my priority, I open up my hand, and it's your heart I'm holding, my words are not in vain, and my promises are given.
