I Swear

By Jella

Baby I'm sorry, for all the wrong I've done, realize what I have in you, we'll be happy for years you're my everything, and I like what you do to me love you around, to fulfill my wildest fantasy.
I swear by the moon, and all that God has made I swear I won't hurt you again, or make you feel dreaming of us, and the good times we'll have, being there in all you do, the one to make you Baby I swear! I'll be there wherever you go, I swear that I will love you, from head to toe I love you because of the way you make me how you're so affectionate, how this dream feels I swear you're the woman, that I often dream you're the one I found, when I looked for love The shining star in my life, how your love stays how your beauty shines, like a radiant light, I swear you can depend on me, when things get you can hold my hand, once things get tough, I'll do everything I can, just to see you smile, Trying my best to make our lives better, mile by mile my mind wanders at night, when you're not near by, get the chills when you're gone, the thought makes me Through thick and thin, I'll always be there,
I love you and won't break your heart, "I Swear"
