By Your Side

Bydellar E,

Tired of being alone, tired of shedding all these tears, tired of the agony, and pain of not having you here.
It's hard to catch my breath, my heart skips a beat without you near, my life feels incomplete.
The sadness, the crying, the stress, the gloom, no joy or peace, or happiness, if I don't see you soon The tension, the pressure, the wait, the love, the blessing, the treasure, my angel from above, can't wait to go home, with you to hold you in my embrace your kisses, your love, your hugs, your charm, missing you daily, and not a moment goes by,
that I don't think of you, and don't even cry, please don't doubt my love, it's way too strong, I won't let you down, I promise not to do you wrong Baby I'm here for you, baby you don't have to think just call my name, and I'll be there, as fast as you b I'm all yours baby, I'll be there to wipe your eyes, no need to be afraid, because I'm always by your side.
