Where I'll Be

By Debra Eja

I pray you know, I'm serious bout being with you,
you know that my love, will always stay true, you're like the morning time, and the birds that sing melodies from Heaven, and joy is what they bring, you're sweet and pretty, just like the finest dove, cant nobody rescue me, when I get lost in your love, Everytime you think of me, in the day, when you sleep
I'll always be there, just like your heartbeat, Cant wait to see you, and kiss your pretty face, may not be there now, but God filled that empty space,
I hope you think of me, like I think of you, give me a chance at your love, that's made me brand where I'll be is in your heart, the beat never left I'll be your last step, I'll even be your last breath, I'll be there in the end, your voice when you cant sleep,
I'll be there when you fall, I'll hold you up when you I'll never leave you lonely, I'll never leave you stray, have you feeling left out, and you cant understand,
my love for you is deep, as the deep blue sea, put your hand over your heart, that's where I'll always be.
