

Ronald W. Clark
April 29, 2014
"SOUTHERN BAPTIST" Page 1 of 1

southern Baptist, and Baptist in general will condemn us all to hell. A black man could find more love in a KKK rally, than I could find in a Baptist Convention. A Jew, would have a better chance at finding compassion in a Nazi concentration camp, than I would, at finding compassion in a Baptist church. It's a shame - but that's just the way it is, the hard core truth behind it.

Baptist, I've just found them to be the most harsh, judgmental, evil, eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth, blood-thirsty individuals that I have ever seen in my life. Practicing the teachings of Christ, love, mercy, compassion the love your neighbor as yourself, is the furthest thing from a Baptist mind. Jesus better be glad that a Baptist wasn't present in John 8:1-11 and that woman, really better be thankful, cause a Baptist would have thrown the stone and killed her. And then screamed old testament law. But that's the way of the Baptist. Feel their wrath. That's a shame, but it's the truth. Matthew 7:21-27 25:31-46. Shows that there are many believers but few true followers. For many shall come, but few shall be chosen. It's the nature of the beast. Follow Christ, not man and his denominations.

God bless
In Peace + Love

Tomnie