

GOOD LEGAL NEWS FLASH!!!

UPDATE

WISCONSIN VOTING LAW (2011)

Milwaukee, Tuesday, April 29, 2014,
Federal District Judge LYNN Adelman struck down Wisconsin state voting law section requiring showing photo ID at the polls passed in 2011 - as UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The gist of the Decision Rational, as reported, is it UNFAIRLY burdened minorities, poor, elderly and students - as Plaintiffs' argued.

The Democrat Minority Assembly Leader supported and Praised the Decision.

Contrarily, the Republican Majority Leader
- Senator Vehemently opposed and denounced it, on NBC 15.com, 11:00p.m.

NEWSCAST.

State Attorney General J. B. Van Hollen (Republican) vowed to appeal, as it is, constitutional to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago.

Republican Gov. Scott Walker, issued a statement that is - he is considering his options, and may call a special legislative session.

Wisconsin Governor's Election is November 2014.

The court's decision is reported to hurt his chances.

Judge Adelman left Wisconsin Legislature to assume the Federal Bench [he was a Democrat legislator.]
SOURCE WISQTV.COM CHANNEL 3000.COM
APRIL 29, 2014; PBS NEWS HOUR.ORG APRIL 29, 2014. PBS.ORG-

BY: LEON IRBY 2 OF 2 DATED APRIL 30, 2014