

"Mothers Hall of Fame"

For Nine Months you carried me and even though I came out kicking and screaming you were the first to hold and embrace me.

Oh how many times you skipped meals, to feed me.
the clothes you had to wear, to clothe me. the nights you didn't rest, so I could rest in peace for all the pains, you bore with me From my first tooth, til the judge sentenced me Mother

If there is ever anyone, other than God, that loves me, it would be thee, with the unconditional love, where with you love me, mere words could not express the way I feel, not even this face full of tears. So from my heart, I am blessed to tell you this Mother's day, you're better than the rest to tell you to lift your head-up you did your very best to tell you, Thank you, for dealing with my mess, to tell you, you passed, your love stood the test to be the one, to sign your name for the Mothers Hall of Fame.

This is dedicated to each and every mother I wish you all the best

Sincerely

Jeddy Drake
