Well Cindy It looks like we were both packing around the same time. I guess change is good. I'm so pissed that I'm far away from you now. I may never get to see you. I just hope that you can some time the time obviously the # to still come see

It's real nice that you have the place to go see I but it's nice. As far as it being hot well it's in the 90's and 103 the other day I don't even have a fan either. Just Am. How hot it gets in a cement box that live in. Robin ordered my package last week believe I sure hope she remembered to order a fan.

Just so you know everything is cool here. Getting along with everyone and I do like prison. I should get a job pretty soon. Hot with pay but that will come with time. I'm going to try to get a job at hospice. I would like to help people in wheelchairs etc. young handicapped, bedridden, ready to pass on a timers.

You can contact me on my blog anytime hopefully get your address, new address real soon. The 1. you sent will have to be forwarded from CMC 7 and I'll answer it as soon as I can. Look I won't be able to write accept through my blog to I have no stamps. If you can afford to send me a book of stamps that would be cool
