

This is DE'ANNA, this is a small writing in Regards to "Memorial Day" On May 26th 2014. I do "HONOR" those Men and Women who died in active military service. They lost their lives in the line of duty to protect us in this Country here called America.

I can't forget about the "troops" Over in Afghanistan and Kuwait. Fighting in the Wars for our Country taking a lot of willpower plus desire of ones own life.

They have ended the WAR over in Iraq a couple of years ago.

I can't wait until they end them "ALL" the "U.S." Troops Men and Women need to return home Alive and safe to be with their families Over here in America. I truly glad A DAY was set aside for them in History they have truly earned it down through the years. (10) to be exact!

Without these brave and strong "U.S." Troops from the past and present fighting for our Country America we would be in a world of trouble. "I salute them all dead and Alive."

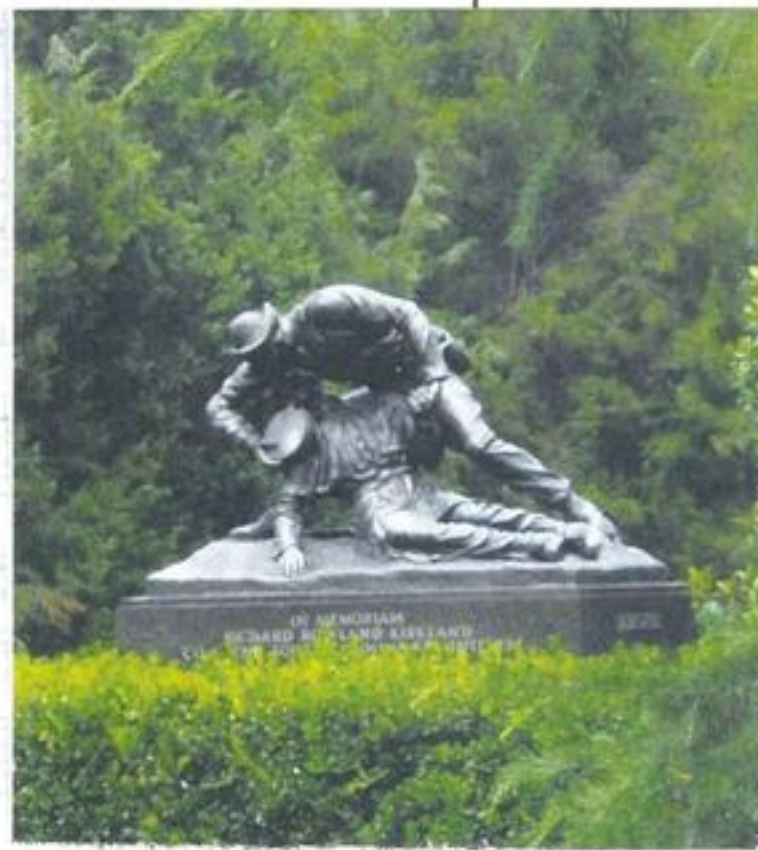

Their deeds mankind shouldn't Never forget I sure want. I read about all the things they have to endure while risking their lives for this Country my heart goes out to both Men and Women.

I am incarcerated at this moment but "I" can't imagine what it's like fighting in a WAR. I wish I had the Address to the place Overseas where the WARS take place.

I would send them a letter (of) appreciation → because those ^{U.S.} troops are not forgotten by me. that's a serious and dangerous task to perform. "President Barack H. Obama" said he ended the war in Iraq he stated he want to End them all by "2011" before his second term in The White House is up we'll have to wait and see.

"I hope he can do that. He is only one man." His whole administration will have to back him up as well it's call U.N.I.T.Y. From the Democrat Party.
