

Things R goin better 4 me. God blessed me w/a room change. I needed that. Even in prison ones quality of life demands havin a sanctuary/safe haven. Amen. Thank God Now I 've found space 2 meditate & write & type & elevate 2 ministry work. That is my life: not prison. See I was called 2 prison ministry at 18, ~~was~~ just my obsession w/street life & girls. Yip prison ministry is my life long job God revealed this 2 me on my 34th B-day. Never thought I'd say I'm 30 my thng! But look at me now - praise God. So here I am rapidly growing Jesus Peace. I awake-happy. Now I just gotta get organized & prepared 4 my eventual release 2 real life. My celly goes home in 265 days - God willing - I don't know my count down but I believe in it nevertheless. Amen. So I'm gettin ready 2 love my daughter in person, go to the library, go 2 church, (go 2 Heaven), then just live in a basement & write books & design clothes & accessories & that's all I got at this point, well beyond the whole wifey & kids thng - God willing. Well I feel fantastic & YES U should write that way it's less public & I can get some pictures of U & the kids & well my precious daughter's name is Prisha & she'll be the beautiful age of 17 in Oct. She's the love of my life & my very ej. Soon she'll be off 2 college & a great psychiatrist & another. In Jesus Name Amen. Well duces - for now seen I'll hear from U soon. & I just enrolled in Bible college

When do u feel most alive?
