Pyro Certified

Byzantine

A registered arsonist, and a felon by heart, arson investigators train to figure out how the fire start?
straight Sherlock Holmes in debris looking for clues, got me to confess to a crime that they couldn't prove.
The case wasn't rock solid, all I did was help talked a little too much, and straight told on myself.
used it against me, and they didn't have any evidence,
no lighter or matches, definitely no fingerprints.
Required to take my prints, and run 'em through the database, took my mugshot, now I'm stuck on an extended stay.
I'm pyro certified! can't get a job with decent pay, everybody scared of me, in the neighborhood where I stay.
I'm watched by everybody, damn it I surrender,
they treating me like I'm a registered sex offender.
People hate to see me coming, starting rumors by tweets, surreptitiously doing check-ups which disclosed my rap sheet.
I say pyro certified, and people look at me all funny, knowing damn well it'll be hard for me to make some money.
my rep is ruined, my character already been defamed, nothing I can do now that'll clean up my tarnished name.
looking 4 jobs, but they push my application to the side, once they run my name, they'll see I'm pyro certified!
