God Is Love

Bydella Egnor

what is love really? Let me break it down a bit, everybody has their own definition, let me find one that fit.
look up the word "love" one meaning said "deep affection."
God is love! with His love, you're surrounded by protection.
He has blessed me, with a strong heartbeat
place to rest my head, clothes on my back, shoes on my feet.
Even though this is a place I really don't wanna be,
I can't complain, nobody put me here but me.
I've been blessed, with the ability to see,
ability to hear and smell, taste the food I eat.
I've been blessed to touch, the ability to speak,
In my right mind, I can pray before I go to sleep.
If I were to ever love anything, that's man made,
I'll be left broken hearted, I'll be left feeling played.
we all tend to love someone, and want them around,
but what if trouble comes, and they can't be found?
will you still say "you love em" will they still be a friend?
will you still admire them, where was that love then?
Everybody here loves something, everybody loves someone,
will that love cover a multitude of sins before Jesus comes?
So if I were you, I wouldn't love the wrong things,
it may end up causing heartache, and crush your dreams.
Know that your help, only comes from above,
you're blessed to still be living, because God is love!
