Dear Rita,

Howdy! Thanks so much for your comments. Lately you're the only person who's posted any comments + that's the only way I can tell if anyone is reading this.

Thanks so much for your compliments. It's so hard to stay positive in here + I feel really miserable sometimes.

I really do wish I could take a dance class with you. We would have so much fun!

You asked about contact with other gay people. I write to that guy Will who contacted me a few months ago + I also have a gay Buddhist penpal who writes every few months. There's also a gay newsletter for prisoners, Black + Pink (BLACK AND PINK.ORG).

In this prison there are a few gay people, but many of them are "in the closet." There are also guys I call "prison gay" cause they have sex with guys only because they can't get a woman. Many guys in prison start a lot of "drama" with each other. It's often best to keep to yourself.

If you had strained your toe in America, No one would've helped you. It's a good thing you were in Belgium.

I haven't heard from Martine in a while. I hope she's OK.

The flowers + sparkles comment was a joke. I meant that because I'm a Big Fairy there are flowers + sparkles wherever I go! Sparkles are like glitter or fairy dust. A diamond "sparkles" in the light.

I don't have my previous comment about Wicca, but it's a pagan religious belief. Witches or brujas are usually Wiccan (or Santeria or whatever). The Bureau of Prisons has to allow freedom of worship.

Right now there are 5 of us which is a larger group than usual. But, 2 of the guys are here just for a mental evaluation & will be leaving soon.

The guy who wanted a pepsal hasn't mentioned it again so don't worry about it. He was just being a pest.

Take care & Slamy Hugs,
