

"My nurse Silence"

* Poetry
* * * * *

I sit with Silence - Sipping cups of coffee
She's my nurse & friend
I wish Silence could come to life
Joining me in real conversation
My ass is sore from sitting hours
Mostly thinking about women & good food
Both I can not attain
There are blackened moments of lowliness
Who gives a duck's ass - Right?
Well I'll just sip & hope -
One day my nurse will find a voice
