I read 33-601.718 "FAC" Review of Request For Visiting Priviledges. No where on there does it say that my Cousins can be on one or the other's visiting list when it comes to them visiting my Father and I. In fact it states all Factors shall be considered. And the fact that my Father and I are incarcerated is clearly not being considered. I'm calling for my Cousins to be permitted to visit both my Father and I. There's no security issue, for my mother is on my list and my Father's list. For these reasons, I'm calling for this to change. Thank you. Ronald W. Clark jr 812974

All requests will be handled in one of the following ways: 1) Written Information or 2) Personal Interview. All informal grievances will be responded to in writing.

DATE RECEIVED: 6-4-14

33-601.716 (6) A visitor shall be permitted to be on the approved visiting record of all inmates who are family (immediate family refers to spouse, children, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents see definition in 33-601.713) as well as one non-family inmate. Cousin is not considered immediate family. Therefore grievance is denied.

[The following pertains to informal grievances only:

Based on the above information, your grievance is denied. (Returned, Denied, or Approved). If your informal grievance is denied, you have the right to submit a formal grievance in accordance with Chapter 33-103.006, F.A.C.]

This is a malicious vindictive misuse of authority to deny my Cousins the right to visit. I guess Cousins can't be considered immediate family due to the fact, that here in Florida they don't just kiss their Cousins they marry them, that's why they don't want to consider them immediate family. Inbreeding at it's best in the FDOC. Ronald W. Clark jr June 6, 2014
