Good afternoon! I received your comment last night. Thank you for your kind words and your help at B.I.B. I really appreciate it.

Your spelling is fine, I write a couple of Brit's so I know some of the spelling is different. I'm doing good just to get American English words spelled correct. Lack of education.

Wish I could enlighten the world, but I'm not the best person to be doing this. Can't say I'm not trying, most people sit around and complain about the issues, and never try to change them. Me, if I'm complaining, then I'm trying to figure out a way to bring about change. Wish I would have had that mind set as a kid, but back then my view was clouded with drug induced stupidity. Oh well - need to deal with the here and now.

Thank's again. Please take care

God bless you

In Peace + Love
