

The Power of Love

Deep within is the Power to Love;
It branches to the deep thoughts.
While it lingers in the mind's thoughts,
it resides in the heart of most.
It give birth to romantic and other loves.

The Power of Love, one it makes sigh
at another's amazing sight.
It has this natural high,
that Lovers crave; and for it one dies.
The Power of Love is from the Most High!

Because of Love given,
one can be forgiven.
Because of Love taken,
one can die and whittle within;
and a heart shattered, broken!

The power of love is a serious thing.
The love of children to their parents;
if not received, it remains.
To the gang-leader it is given;
he becomes the peculiar parent.

See, the power of love now and then,
is a serious thing.
When at its lowest, even;
it works from within,
and to the gangbanger it expands!
