You are there
when I smell
the sweet fragrance
of spring.

You are there
when I taste
the sweetness of a watermelon on a warm summer day

when I feel the wind rustling through the colorful leaves of fall

You are there
when I'm watching
the moon + stars
on a cold winter's night

when I need
a comforting embrace
from the heart
when I stop to reflect
if only for a moment
on my life
you are there
