subject: M. Solano rendering Grievance Appeals Ineffective

on May 3, 2014 I Filed Informal Grievance Log # 05-14-049, which was responded to on May 7, 2014
by Captain Jackowski denying it. on May 8, 2014 I Filed Formal Grievance Log # 1405-213-093 which was responded to by T. Key on May 13, 2014 denied. on May 15, 2014 I Filed Appeal Grievance # 14-6-16505 stating "your Administrative appeal to this office is in non-compliance with 33-103, Inmate Grievance procedure, because your grievance at the institutional level was determined to be in non-compliance with the requirements of the rules.

your request for administrative appeal is being returned without action signed M. Solano see attached as [Exhibit (A)] Informal # 05-14-049 Formal # 1406-213-093 and appeal # 14-6-16505 the INFormal and Formal are both responded to denied, they are therefore both in compliance with 33-103.005 and 33-103.006 so it's obvious that it is M. Solano's, response, that is in non-compliance, of the rule, and regulations, of the Department's Grievance procedure.

It is the practice, and policy, of the Florida Dept of corrections, to render the grievance system ineffective, this appeal # 14-6-16505 is just one, of the many examples, that I can produce, showing grievances, that are in compliance, rendered ineffective, by the responders. INFormal Grievances, not being responded to, Formal's and appeal grievances, being rubber stamped, with computer generated responses.

The F.D.O.C. grievance procedure, is clearly broken, and no one wants to fix it. For if it was corrected, it would give inmates a true outlet, and a voice to correct injustices in the FDOC.

An investigation into Florida's broken grievance system, is required, as can be seen by [Exhibit (A)]. I'm calling for a U.S. Dept justice audit.

Thank you for your time and hopefully your help.

Respectfully
submitted,

Ronald W. Clark J
