I Could Never Thank~you More

I could never Thank~you More! It touches me deeply that someone I do not hardly know at All. tried to send $25.00 to My account ^{cc} It was done anonymously. I wish deep down in my heart I could Thank~you or repay you! I truly do, for someone to take the Initiative to be that thoughtful (for me!) unfortunately most do not know or even aware of the state of Texas withdrawing any money sent to offenders accounts. I have been incarcerated since 2009 and have not gone to commissary once, and it was truly heartbreaking to find out that I couldn't receive one cent due to court fees, medical expenses and indigent supplies. I wish there was a way you could have known. Because

② Then you could know the State of TX
Withdraws from our accounts Even if it was donated go figure so in future

Families If you have loved ones incarcerated and have received Neat little Cards, handkerchiefs or Illustrator Boards you know what I mean

(i) They do not allow us to do this for Profit they say it is an Establishing a Business LOL! So they expect us to sit back and watch others enjoys buying themselves ICE Cream and Sodas, Candy bars things they need every human being needs, aren't I human also? Shouldn't I deserve to try and provide for myself? IF I can? Some can't even draw a straight line we work but don't get paid. I don't get how the State could take a Donation? and still not expect us to try and get what we can. Inmates aren't very friendly to those that run around striking without deaderant they make fun of them. I apologize for complaining I know some do not care to read about someone complaining about their Rights Ect..

④ Today is Commissary day Everyone is excited running around playing holding spots for each other as they come through the door to the wing they reach into their Bags (I have no bags) they pull out Ice Cream Sodas and Cakes gather around tables and gorge!! (I have no ICE Cream, OR Soda) Later they return to the table with Chilies, Soups and chips bowls filled with Spreads, Salsas, Beans and Tortillas. (I have no Bowl) why? Because I could not throw a little in to share with the group. People don't like Bubbs either in here. Later you will see the groups make their cookie pies These Large Cake looking Desserts Topped with Icing Sprinkles or M&M's Chocolate dripping (I have no slice) we suffer in more ways than most think yes we are fed but who would not agree that having this pleasure would be nice.
