Thank you so much for your reply. Some times kind words are like flavored Ice Cream that soothes loneliness. I'm 53 Having fun learning what women learn early in life - How to be a human being - Decent that is -

You made me laugh when you said one shot is enough to kill a kangaroo - I don't know why just seemed funny comparing them with these crazy ass Americans ☺ But truth be known we've lost the edge in the world's standings. Sexuality I believe has contributed into its political social (ect) slide. Our Elderly distance themselves staying indoors where it's safe and even then that's not true - they are robbed & murdered there to. Kids murdering their parents. It's all crazy. If God was telling this story it would be with his tears. You mentioned you haven't been around for a while - Where did you go Heaven ☺ Well you messed and came back God probably thought he needed to beautify the earth longer so he sent you back from the crazy side of the world.
