The beginning of a New Nation

Please Read this if you are a woman who thinks she knows her path and place in this world.

Dear Women of the world, view these words as you've never viewed any others,

Women! you are flowers, Queens, rare jewels, nurturers, the beginning. Without you the world ceases to exist; because from the depths of your temple life springs forth and replenishes all that has been lost, removed, or damaged.

My beautiful flowers, Queens, rare jewels, nurturers, and beginning... Heed the knowledge that is being set in front of you! This knowledge is to bring forth women who will be the birth and back bone of a new nation.

I know you may wonder what I'm talking about, but before I go any further let me give you the definition of the word nation: In the 2007 edition of Webster's dictionary for students; The definition of Nation is: (1) Nationality, (2) a community of people made up of one or more nationalities usually with its own territory and government, and (3) Country.

I want you to focus on the second definition, because ladies, that definition places a lot of responsibilities on your shoulders.

Without your willingness to teach yourselves, and other women to honor themselves in every way that we are deemed. A man looks for love, hope, strength, understanding, and upliftment from every woman who enters his life, but when he can't find it, he self destructs, and becomes angry, lost, and broken...

The question is why can't he find those things? The answer is simple; Those things are fading and will no longer exist if we don't stop our women from falling into the pit of the lost and unconscious.

Women are not teaching or being taught that they are queens, they are not being taught or teaching women how to conduct themselves with honor, dignity, strength, and confidence. We are losing our queens, nurturers, and flowers, because they are being guided by those who are lost. Instead of mothers teaching their daughters to be independent, they are being taught to find a man with money, and to let him take care of them. Instead of mothers teaching their daughters priorities, they're teaching them to live for today and worry about later, later. Our women are being taught the destruction of themselves, and in turn our nation... our people-- and when I say our people, I'm not looking at color, I'm speaking of people who are not righteously guided, but don't understand that they aren't righteously guided.

Women you are the Key to the New Nation, the New world!
but you must do two things; (1) realize your power and use it productively, and (2) break the cycle of materialism, dependence, and contentment.

ladies, I have wondered if you truly know how much influence you have on your surroundings... I personally do not believe you do, because if you did the world would truly be a much better place to live. Women! I want to show you your power and influence... I'm going to ask you to conduct an experiment, and I promise you the results will be shocking and eye opening.

If you're the type of woman who likes to wear jeans, sweat pants, etc start wearing dresses and high heels; if you're the type of woman who is always in dresses and high heels start wearing jeans, sweat pants, etc and after a week of doing this watch how many people start to follow your trend, your change... I can promise you within days you'll see a true change in the way they act... people follow what looks good, and makes them feel good. If you have someone in your life doing things you don't like, for example; a husband who doesn't take out the garbage; start cooking things he doesn't like and then explain to him that how he felt about his mess is how you feel when he doesn't take out the garbage.

To make it simple - ladies, if you stop liking it, accepting it, and ignoring it, you'll change it - Men go out of their way to impress women, so if you let the "thug", "drug dealer", "pimp", etc continue to impress you then you'll always have those types of men... so stop letting them attract you... change what attracts you and men will change, thus will your surroundings.

which leads me back to women not teaching their daughters to be the Queens that they are. put priorities in your life; stress education, book and self education, because without knowing who you are you can never truly be educated.

women! Money doesn't make you, unless you let it! A man can't define you unless you let him! you can do whatever you choose, but if you only choose to do something to impress others, outshine others, or just to be able to say you did it - you're lost! and a hindrance to the beginning of the New Nation, the New world!

women! I want to share knowledge with you, if you're curious, or are seeking enlightenment, change, upliftment, and strength.

What I'm looking for is the opportunity to bring you out of the Darkness into the light! The only thing I will receive out of your responses is the chance to re-build the world by beginning The New Nation... While sending this you may think that I'm a fool, you may even laugh, but remember this! They laughed at Malcom X, Martin Luther King JR., Ghandi, The Islamic prophet Muhammad, Jesus, and many others, but look at the greatness that they've inspired, the lives they changed, and how different the world is because of them! and people called them fools too.

If you wish to know how to step out of the Darkness and into the light, please do not hesitate to write me.
