

4-8-14 Tues 4:44pm R6-CI dayroom

Dear God,

I'm not sure what's wrong exactly. I tend 2 B saddest right after experiencing a blessing. I seem 2 B on a spiritual roller coaster ã It's my own fault. I admittedly ½ dabbled in sin. ã I am also guilty of hardening my ð 2 the things of God. Love seems 2 escape me. Then stead of prayin 2 walk in love, I pray 2 B removed - miraculously from prison! Stead of fastin 2 reflect ur love I fast 4 a new cell.

How soon I 4 get suffering & persecution is destined 2 B. Pull me. Yikes. So I cry out often 4 "this cup" 2 B removed from my wretched hands. Here I stand

Who will take me as I AM? (2)

When I sometimes don't take myself, as I am! So I'm guilty of not loving my neighbor as myself. Not loving myself it's easy 2 turn my back on my neighbor cause it's easy 2 turn my back on my very own self. Jesus can save me, but 1st I must let Him. Sometimes I'd just rather not B.

Sleep escapes me. I blame my environment. Prison is 2 loud & I'm 2 quiet. Prison is extraverted, I'm so introverted. The dayroom is loud, my celly TV is loud: he's loud, the yelling is loud. So are the attitudes. Prison is fun, but not 4 me so much. I pray 4 a single cell but that's not the cure all. I know this. Know 4 callin me 2 community but it's absolutely positively hard 4 me. I just don't do well - round crews - specially this one.

I don't know how Moses did it. (3)
